By using our Services and accessing the Platform, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. For the establishment of the membership agreement.

It is sufficient to enter the requested Member (membership) Information and the password you will determine, give the specified approvals and / or permissions and press the [Become Member / Register / Login] etc. button. We especially request you to enter your name/title, e-mail address/mobile phone number and other mandatory information correctly, completely and accurately; if you notice an error, correct it. You can correct the deficiencies / errors you notice after the completion of the membership process in the My Membership Information / My Account section, which you will access from the Member Login section, or you can contact our Customer Service.

When your membership process is completed, we will send this User and Membership Agreement (in form-text) to the e-mail address you specified in the Membership Information. It is also available as text on our website. A text such as the text of the Agreement "special" for the member (whose information is entered as a party) may not be kept separately in our Company's systems.

You may terminate your membership at any time you wish with a written notification to our Company through the above-mentioned communication channels, without any justification and without penalty. Likewise, our Company may terminate/suspend memberships for various reasons. If you benefit from our services and the service you receive requires the use of the Platform, the right to terminate your membership may be limited or the service may be suspended / terminated if you terminate the membership.

If you are becoming a member of the Platform as a legal entity, you represent and warrant that you are authorized to represent and bind the relevant legal entity and that you are jointly and severally liable together with the legal entity. Otherwise, you agree to be personally liable for the debts and obligations arising.

4. GENERAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

As a member of the Platform, you can purchase the following services from MOVE ON.

i. Software License Service

MOVE ON provides the MCP- MOVE ON AgTech Cloud Platform Service to the Users after they become a member of the Platform. This artificial intelligence-based software product will be made available through the Platform. You can purchase MCP- MOVE ON AgTech Cloud Platform Service by making an in-platform purchase.

ii. Equipment Sales

You can purchase hardware and equipment (equipment separately TAS and TASAI together will be referred to as "MOVE ON Equipment") for use in the MOVE ON AgTech Cloud Platform service through the Platform. The sale of equipment is separate from the service numbered (i) and the products can be purchased separately or together.

MOVE ON will not be responsible for repairs in case of damage to the MOVE ON Equipment caused by use. MOVE ON does not have any responsibility for the inability to use the MCP - MOVE AgTech Cloud Platform service due to the damage in question, and no refund will be made.

From the moment of delivery of the MOVE ON Equipment to you, MOVE ON cannot be held responsible for any damage to the equipment. At the time of delivery, the responsibility for damage and defect of the MOVE ON Equipment is transferred to you and MOVE ON is not responsible for damage and defect that may occur after delivery.

You can purchase services related to the maintenance and repair of MOVE ON Equipment from MOVE ON. MOVE ON will invoice you for part replacement, repair and complete replacement costs. MOVE ON does not provide free maintenance and repair services within the scope of its services. You acknowledge and agree that repairing or replacing the MOVE ON Equipment may delete installed content, reset personal settings or cause other changes to the MOVE ON Equipment.

MOVE ON reserves the right to manage the status and use of the MOVE ON Equipment during the equipment purchase period. Neither you nor any third party may alter, prevent or block MOVE ON's access to MOVE ON Equipment data or settings. If any of your data is generated or transmitted by or through third party equipment, hardware or software products (e.g., tractors or harvesters and their software systems) and you notify us of your request for product support related to such third party equipment, hardware or software product, we may share your data with the provider of such equipment, hardware or software product to the extent we reasonably believe reasonably necessary to respond to your product support request, provided that such provider agrees not to use or disclose your data to any party for purposes other than responding to your product support request. If you do not want us to share your data with the provider of any third party equipment, hardware or software product, please notify us of your request by calling Customer Support at 0850 533 34 60 during business hours or by emailing support@moveon.ai or by providing us with written notice as set out in Section 6.6 below. Please note that not allowing us to share your data with the provider may prevent MOVE ON or the provider from effectively troubleshooting or resolving your issue.

iii. Secure Payment and Delivery System

MOVE ON; The collection of the price of the purchased product is made electronically through online payment points / licensed payment institutions. MOVE ON reserves the right to change the payment method and/or the contracted online payment service provider at any time. In case of a problem with the online payment point by the User, the User is required to contact this service provider and MOVE ON is not a party to the problems arising from this issue. Payment is not made directly to the MOVE ON account, but to a secure account with the bank managed by the payment organization. Thus, a secure payment system is provided to the User and aims to protect against the risk that the purchased product / service is not delivered / service is not fulfilled at all or in the desired quality and conditions and to protect credit card information.

In order to prevent the theft, loss, and misuse of credit card information, services are obtained through the card storage institution with virtual POS integration, and all card information is securely stored within the framework of this cooperation in accordance with the request and permission and in payment transactions.

The User/Buyer agrees in advance that the payment/card storage institution will charge a commission fee at varying rates over time and according to the transaction, and in the event of any refund without the fault of MOVE ON, the commission, costs, service fees, taxes and similar expenses charged by the payment / storage institution, bank and other third parties will be charged to the User / Buyer and will not be refunded.
